

Maximizing Employment Opportunities

Community Living Supports (CLS)

Providing personal self-sufficiency and facilitating an individual's achievements of their goals and independence.

Who We Are

New Horizons Rehabilitation Services is an accredited, not-for-profit organization founded in 1964 that helps people with disabilities achieve their goals and lead more fulfilling lives through employment programs and other activities.

The New Horizons staff will work directly with the individual, support coordinator, family, or residential provider to coordinate and facilitate the service.

What is Community Living Supports (CLS)?

Community Living Supports (CLS) is a service offered by New Horizons to encourage and teach persons with disabilities to become more independent and self-sufficient in their community. Community Living Supports (CLS) facilitates an individual's independence and promotes community integration.

Persons referred to New Horizons for CLS Supports are provided a support staff to assist with the achievement of their specific goals and objectives as established in their Person-Centered Plan.

The supports can be provided in the person's residence, (licensed facility, family home, own home, or apartment) and in community settings.

Types of Adult Daily Living Supports Include:

- Bathing
