

New Horizons

Maximizing Employment Opportunities

SSI/SSDI Social Security Return-to-Work Help in re-entering the workforce

Why We Have Social Security Return-to-Work Services

Goals of the Program

- To provide individuals with better information regarding Social Security and how they can be impacted by wages.
- Help individuals retain jobs for longer periods of time due to increased satisfaction with work through social security incentive programs.

How to Participate

If you are interested in receiving any of the Social Security Return-to-Work services in this brochure, please contact us at: 248-340-0559

If you are currently receiving SSI or SSDI benefits, you probably know the fear and uncertainty of trying to find employment and not knowing how that will affect your benefits...and your life. We can help.

The services that New Horizons provides can help individuals enhance their self-sufficiency and improve their lifestyle through employment while taking into account the effect on SSI and SSDI benefits.

What We Do

New Horizons' Social Security Specialists credentialed as Work Incentive Practitioners and Community Partner Work Incentive Counselors, work with counselors from the Michigan Department of Career Development/Rehabilitations Services (MDCD/RS) to provide assistance to individuals currently receiving SSI or SSDI benefits who desire to obtain employment.

Here's what we can do:

- Address all pertinent issues regarding SSI and SSDI benefits
- Provide an informational packet to better understand your benefits, including a resource guide for future planning
- Provide a resource guide for future planning
- Provide advocacy regarding SSI & SSDI issues
- Assist in writing PASS plans
- Assist with reporting work and wages
- Advocates with overpayment

Role of the Participant

Individuals that participate in this project will be responsible for:

- Attending group and individual counseling sessions
- Working with the professional staff in determining employment and benefit needs
- Being the primary focus in the development of all support and employment plans
- Actively seeking employment to the fullest of their capabilities
